

BA-1987

HENDRIX HOUSE - 1877-1896 - 19020 York Road, Parkton. This large frame, two-story house in white clapboard is vernacular in style with a few classical touches, including a porch door with transom and sidelights. It first appears in the 1896 tax ledger as the home of A.W. Hendrix, one of the founders of the M.E. church that once stood at the north end of town. The grounds contain the former medical office of Dr. R.R. Norris, brought from No. 18908 York Road. Owner: Geo. S. Howard, Inc.